MEMO FROM THE EDITORS:

President Kay and Girl Friday Carol, Vice President, made a trip to Ralls Co, Courthouse in New London where they studied deeds and court cases. Some of these will be printed from time to time beginning with the next issue.

Many interesting facts were discovered, one of which was a divorce action in the 1850's, an event which was quite uncommon in those days. There were several disputes over land and many other interesting items, so STAY TUNED IN!

WISCONSIN:

Dear Friends:

"...Of course most interested in the family of Jacob Valentine KRIGBAUM. I was married to Jake, son of Jim, who lived in Madison. I haven't gotten our histories together as yet but am trying. Much Success in the future."

Sadelle LIETZAN

Poynette, Wisconsin

Letter dated: May 3, 1976.

COLORADO:

Dear Joan Krigbaum:

"... As ever,"

Gertrude KRIGBAUM

This is as far as we can go right now. However, if you will notice we go a little further each time. Just compare all three issues and you will see we learn a little more each time. By the next issue, we hope to learn more about our ancestors in Germany. We have some addresses to write to in Germany. We hope to learn much from such sources across the waters. It is said that you can go back as far as 1100 A.D. Wouldn't that be great? Starting in the next issue, we will print one of our Pedigree Charts which we have enclosed with this issue, so please fill out your Charts!
