

out before the bridge was removed.

J. T. Johnson, on last Saturday at the Ringo House corner, sold thirty-five yearling steers belonging to E. L. Woodson to W. Fowles for $16.10 per head. He also sold a lot of steer calves belonging to Mr. Davidson to T. H. Jones for $15 per head, and some calves belonging to Mr. Crockett to T. H. Jones for $14 per head.